Background

On 30 November 2016 the Strata Acts and Regulations were repealed and replaced by the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015.

Under the new Strata Schemes Development Act 2015, Administration Sheets forming part of Strata Plans must include a Valuer's Certificate for the proposed unit entitlement and Unit Entitlements must be determined by Qualified Valuer's.

In response to the new legislation, woodburyAU, an independent boutique property advisory and valuation practice, has established a specialist unit entitlement valuation division to provide quick and economical Valuer's Certificates for property developers, development managers, land surveyors and strata certifiers.

The division provides Valuer's Certificates for all types of strata title freehold and leasehold projects including residential, social & affordable housing, retirement villages, hotel & leisure, retail, commercial and industrial throughout New South Wales.

All Valuer's Certificates are issued by Paul Woodbury, a Qualified Valuer and Fellow of the Australian Property Institute with over 35 years of specialist development (finance) valuation experience in New South Wales.
